Development of e-services

- The training system is accompanied by specific ICT tools available on the web page of the State Employment Agency:
 - Self-assessment career guidance tests
 - Labour market short term forecasting systems (shows both professions in demand and those where demand is falling for the coming year)
 - The performance measurement system of training institutions (allows future training participants to compare the performance of training institutions in terms of job finding rates)
 - Booking system (allows future training participants to book training and follow up how many other have register – training provider can set the minimum number of participants not exceeding the number set by the regulation)
 - CV/vacancies portal
